“Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For today in the city of David, a savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find the infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.” And Suddenly there was a multitude of heavenly host with the angel, praising God and saying: “Glory to God in the highest and on earth, peace to those on whom his favor rests.”
Luke 2: 10-14

John 13: 34-35

“I give you a new commandment: Love one another; You must love one another just as I have loved you. It is by your love for one another, that everyone will recognize you as my disciples.”

Mark 12: 30-31

Jesus replied, “You shall love the Lord, your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind and with all your strength.” The second is this, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other Commandment greater than these.”

Jesus said to his disciples: “Be watchful! Be Alert! You do not know when the time will come. It is like a man traveling abroad. He leaves home and places his servants in charge, each with his own work, and orders the gatekeeper to be on the watch. Watch, therefore; you do not know when the lord of the house is coming, whether in the evening or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or in the morning. May he not come suddenly and find you sleeping. What I say to you, I say to all: “Watch.”

Mark 13:33-37

And Mary said: “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God, my savior.”

Luke 1: 46 - 47

Matthew 22: 37 – 39

Jesus replied: “Love the Lord, your God, with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest Commandment, and second is like it: “Love your Neighbor as Yourself.”

As it is written in Isaiah the prophet: Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way. A voice of one crying out in the desert: “Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths.” John the Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

Mark 1: 1-5

Luke 17:20-21

“Asked by the Pharisees when the Kingdom of God would come, he said in reply, “The coming of the Kingdom of God cannot be observed and no one will announce, look, here it is or there it is for behold, the Kingdom of God is among you.”
