READ SLOWLY the following Scripture two or three times.

Jesus Feeds the Crowds.[b] 1 After this, Jesus crossed the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias, 2 and a large crowd of people followed him because they saw the signs he performed on the sick. 3 Jesus went up on a mountainside and sat down there with his disciples. 4 The Jewish feast of Passover was approaching. 5 When Jesus looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him, he said to Philip, “Where are we to buy bread for them to eat?” 6 He said this to test him, because Jesus himself knew what he was going to do. 7 Philip answered him, “Two hundred days’ wages[c]would not buy enough bread for each of them to have a small piece.” 8 One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, 9 “There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what help will they be among so many?” 10 Jesus said, “Have the people sit down.” Now there was plenty of grass in that place, so the men sat down, about five thousand of them. 11 Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to the people who were sitting there. He did the same with the fish, as much as they wanted. 12 When they all had eaten enough, he said to the disciples, “Gather up the fragments that are left over, so that nothing will be wasted.” 13 So they gathered them up and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves left by those who had eaten. 14 When the people saw the sign he had performed, they began to say, “This is indeed the Prophet who is to come into the world.”15 Then Jesus realized that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, so he again withdrew to the mountain by himself. (John 6:1-15)

MEDITATION After the reading, take some time to reflect in silence on one or more of the following questions:

- What word or words in this passage caught your attention?
- What in this passage comforted you?
- What in this passage challenged you?

CONTEMPLATION Read the Scripture again, followed by this reflection: He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. When have I felt that my faith is being tested? How do I respond to these tests? There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. When have I been asked to share my time, treasure, or talent? How can I be more generous in responding to these requests? Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining. For what do I need to give thanks? How do my feelings of gratitude affect my practice of charity?

JOURNAL

Write out all your answers so that you can fully understand what the Holy Spirit is saying to you personally, and the response you give back to Him. Lectio Divina is not a monologue, but rather a dialogue between you and God.

CHALLENGE

How will you serve Jesus this week?
